Adzom Gyurme Jamtso RinpocheKloster in Pharping near Kathmandu /Nepal

Adzom Gyurme Jamtso Rinpoche was born in the Kham region of eastern Tibet. His life as a monk began at an early age as a small boy.

After his three-year retreat, he attended the Larung Gong Monastery University in Tibet, where he studied Buddhist philosophy extensively at Khenchen Jigme Phunstok. Khenchen Jigme Phunstok is one of the most important Dzogchen masters of modern times, who founded with the world's largest Buddhist institute. Adzom Gyurme Jamtso Rinpoche's abilities are very far-reaching; he is well-trained in Tibetan yoga techniques and various Powa rituals.

He is a reborn master and was re-emerged as the reincarnation of Adzom Namtul Rinpoche. Adzom Namtul Rinpoche was a great master who realized the rainbow body.

This was confirmed by the second Adzom Drukpa Rinpoche, Jamyang Choukyi Nyima Rinpoche and his Holiness the Dalai Lama.

Adzom Gyurme Jamtso Rinpoche is the one of two patrons of Jigme Kunsang Ling Center. He regularly visits the Center. With the teachings of Long Chenpa, he began a year-long teaching cycle last year.

Longchen Rabjam

Has been alive from 1308 - 1363 and he was revered as one of the greatest scholars of the Nyingma tradition, which is the oldest tradition of Buddhism in Tibet. He was given the designation of the "omniscient". Receiving a text transmission from him is something very special and can lead to far-reaching inner experiences. The cycle taught here is one of three "resting" texts that Long Chenpa has written and covers all Yanas from Hinayana to Mahayana to Dzogchen.
