Note to the Kuntu Zangpo prayer
the heart of Kun Bzang Gong's Pa Zang Thal:

"This text drives the students directly into liberation"

The Kun Bzang Dgon's Pa Zang Thal

is the Dzogchen part of a large five-part treasure, which Rigdzin Godem received from Padmasambhava in the 14th century.

It is the Byangter Line - the Tradition of the Northern (Byang) Treasures (gTer), Rigdzin Godem is considered the incarnation of Nanam Dorje Dudjom, one of Padmasambhava's closest disciples ("the happy circle of the five").

These Northern Treasure Texts have been transmitted through various lines to date.

. Rigdzin Godem

For the Khordong line, S.H. Khordong Terchen Tulku Chhimed Rigdzin Rinpoche the traditional line holder. The Khordong Monastery (gompa) in Kham Trehor, eastern Tibet was founded by Sherab Mebar, a disciple of Padma Trinlae, who was a disciple of the fifth Dalai Lama.

Most Khordong Termas were discovered in the mid-19th century by Khordong Terchen Nuden's Dorje Drophan Lingpa Drolo Tsal, who was recognized as the incarnation of Kyechung Lotsawa, a direct disciple of Padmasambhava. Nuden Dorje spent most of his life in eastern Tibet and stayed in the Khordong Gompa during his later years. Chhimed Rigdzin Rinpoche was after Kalden Lingpa the last incarnation of Nuden Dorje. The monastery in Tibet is now run by Tulku Chhimed Gyaltzen Rinpoche, enthroned by Tulku Chhimed Rigdzin Rinpoche.

Tulku Chhimed Rigdzin Rinpoche is on his first trip across Europe this year. In the years before, he had already visited the main center of the Khordong Line in Europe, which is located in Poland, Drophan Ling, and has already given major teachings and initiations there.

We are very pleased to welcome him to our Retreat House. He is u.a. also accompanied by the German line holder Gudrun Knausenberger.

The teachings and initiations To Kun Bzang Dgon's Pa Zang Thal are very rare and to be regarded as particularly high quality.
